

"In our online school program here in British Columbia we are pleased to use the ICOS English Courses. They require no arduous exercises, no tiresome memory drills, and no heartless practicing. The lessons are easy to navigate because they follow a natural progression. Our students joyfully and easily move from lesson to lesson without the pressure of schedules or rote learning. Our ESL team loves the program and our students are mastering their English learning all through an online environment."

"I can highly recommend ICOS to any ESL teacher who is looking for a program that will individualize second language learning. The topics chosen for study were relevant and practical and I loved how the program gave instant feedback through the use of automated scoring for exercises. ICOS allows a teacher to monitor a student's progress very closely which I found to be a real benefit. It is a very worthwhile addition to any ESL study."

Joanne Robideau (ESL teacher, Kelowna, BC, Canada)

"No matter whether students are beginners or are already confident with conversational English, they will be enthusiastic about ICOS. They can study at their own pace wherever and whenever they want. ILC has reviewed many ESL materials and has found that the ICOS content is one of the best, well organized and engaging sets of online ESL course content anywhere. I am most pleased to give it my full endorsement. This would be a dream tool for cross-cultural workers around the world to help others learn English and build bridges with neighbours through positive communication."
